

ORCA ANNUAL DINNER DANCE
Featuring
Opportunity Rocks

On Saturday, January 23, Ocean Ridge Charities Association Inc. (ORCA) hosted its Annual Dinner Dance.

This year it was held at the Plantation Club and featured the homegrown and becoming quite famous band, Opportunity Rocks, starring Ocean Ridge residents: Laurie White (lead female singer), George Briggs (lead male singer), Karen Nelson (rhythm guitar and vocals), Mike Lebkicher (rhythm guitar), Hugh Carano (bass guitar), Rob Edwards (lead guitar), Dale Hackman (drums), and Dennis Covelli (keyboard).

The band played 4 sets, entertaining the crowd from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. Their songs included 'Crocodile Rock', which roused the crowd and filled the dance floor and a beautifully romantic rendition of 'At this Moment' performed by Laurie.

Attendees raved about the food, which was provided by Dickey's Barbeque from North Myrtle Beach. The dance floor was never empty, the conversations never at a lull, and the band never missed a beat - these are all sure signs of the great time everyone enjoyed. Now top that with the fact that the evening was orchestrated as a fundraiser! The event generated approximately $2,800, which will be given to two very deserving charities: Brunswick Homeless Coalition and StreetReach. Part of those earnings also included a 50/50 totaling $840 won by Deb and Ron Sisk.

The ORCA Board would like to thank all of the Ocean Ridge residents who attended for their generosity and participation. We hope everyone had a wonderful time and we wish to express our appreciation of your support in our mission to serve the neediest in Brunswick County.
