

Changing Tides article for December 2014

Ocean Ridge Charities Association presented Bistro 4 on Saturday, November 1, 2014 at the Plantation Club. This year the proceeds went to Brunswick County Habitat for Humanity and Hope Harbor Home.

The sellout crowd was treated to a wonderful evening of food and entertainment. Maggi Edwards was again the featured songstress. She wowed the audience with her unique vocal styling.

Bob Houser served as Master of Ceremony for the event and entertained everyone with many humorous stories. Joe Coffini brought the crowd to its feet with a rousing rendition of "Unchain My Heart" and Mary Zuk had the audience in stitches with her comedic rendition of the "Alphabet Song". Not to be outdone, Rod Peterson joined Maggi for a duet of "You've Got a Friend".

ORCA also presented an encore performance of Bistro 4 on Sunday afternoon at the Calabash Elks Club. Since the Plantation Club sold out on the first day, the Bistro committee arranged for the additional performance. The Calabash audience, many of whom were non Ocean Ridge residents, was as captivated as the Ocean Ridge group, giving Maggi a standing ovation.

The combined events raised almost $6000 for the two charities. Ocean Ridge Charities would like to thank all the members of our community who attended either of the events for their generous contributions to Brunswick County Habitat for Humanity and Hope Harbor Home.
